What was the "roar of the greasepoint and the smell of the crowd" that hit Sun Vailey this year? It was the reestablished Dramatics Club of course! Miss Hornsleth and her club have succeeded in bringing culture to the halls of Sun Valley. They have not only presented one of the best plays, inside Lester, that has ever graced Sun Valley's stage but also have introduced the people of Sun Valley to the repertoire plays presented at West Chester Coilege. Let's give this club a big round of applicuse—they deserve it

One of the largest and most well-known organizations of Sun Valley is the Distributive Education Club. Under the direction of Miss Constantine, the members have gained extensive experience, and rendered much service to our school and our community in the fields of marketing and distribution. By such activities as the Press Club, the Yearbook Patron Drive, and the Immunization Survey for the Department of Health, D.E.C.A. has become a greatly admired organization.

On May 29, 1965, to the dreamy music of the Haverfordians, we danced away an enchanted night. The school was decorated like a beautiful Hawaiian island, in the middle stood the replica of a native hut filled with tropical flowers. We danced, we ate, we laughed in the Hawaiian atmosphere of our fabulous prom, the high light of our Junior year.

Under the direction of the "Big Three," Mr. Spahr, Mr. Lashendock, and Mr Moses, our Vanguards faced the roughest opponents in our team's history. The move up to section two may not have been to our advantage on the scoreboard, however against such skilled adversaries our boys exhibited an unparalled determination which combined with well planned strategic manuvers and basic grid from techniques constitutes a progressive team.

Despite a discouraging season our hockey team evidenced an unparalled team spirit. Both at home and away our girls battled to the finish. The season was high ighted by a visit from the world renown female hockey coordinator, Miss C. Applebee, Having the worn

Records may not have been broken, great success may not have been attained, but when we saw our boys playing, we were aware of an effort to work, not as individuals, but as comrades appreciating the need of teamwork

When two or more people function with such perfection and coordination, a bond of friendship and acceptance is formed. This takes precedence over something as simple as winning. Our team has won; they have won friendship which is much higher than any numerical score

wrestling

Very few people are so understanding that they appreciate all forms of athletics or activities. But, anyone who was fortunate enough to see our wrestling squad has to stand back and respect the perfection of body control. In an age when machines do practically all it is pure pleasure to watch muscles working with no reward but that which stimulates the mind to do better.

what is any great structure without the people that make it such? our school has its good those faces who were friends one day and will be the ones who make the year a time wor-and its bad points, its leaders and its followers; thy of remembrance now [] .
